

Accommodation in Munich

State: June 2020

This brochure provides an overview of different accommodation types in Munich to young people. Please note that the accommodation situation in Munich is generally difficult, as cheap lodging is hard to find. The Youth Information Centre does not have and does not rent apartments or rooms but gives advice where to search and apply.

➤ Apartments and rooms for rent & shared flats

Daily newspapers:

- Süddeutsche Zeitung (SZ)
→ Print version: Advertisements appear every Wednesday and Friday
→ online version: www.sueddeutsche.de
- Münchner Merkur and tz
→ online version: www.immobilien.merkur.de
(in cooperation with www.immowelt.de)

Free district newspapers:

District newspapers appear twice or three times a week. You can usually find them in the mailbox or in front of the flats' staircases:

- Der Münchner Wochenanzeiger
→ online version: www.wochenanzeiger.de
- HALLO München
→ online version: www.hallo-muenchen.de

- www.wohnung-jetzt.de (rooms, apartments)
- www.quoka.de (rooms, apartments)
- www.lieblingsmieter.de (apartments)
- www.wohnungsmarkt24.de (apartments)

On www.facebook.de you can search for „groups“ like „Wohnen in München“ (living in Munich) etc.

Caution!

Beware of very cheap offers – it might be a fraud! Never pay money in advance before signing the rental contract or seeing the apartment.

What does 'WG' mean?

The acronym 'WG' stands for 'Wohngemeinschaft', which means a shared flat. Several people live together in one apartment and share the costs (rent, electric power, Internet etc.). Everyone has their own room, while the kitchen and bathroom are shared. 'WG' is very popular among young people in Germany (especially students).

Our advices:

Use the websites from the previous list and create your own (free) advertisement as an accommodation seeker. In order to avoid spam and inappropriate responses, we recommend you to create an extra e-mail-address for this purpose. Try to keep your e-mail-name anonymously and do not name it after your real surname and given name.

2nd advice

Subscribe to „Budenschleuder“, which is an e-mail newsletter. The newsletter contains private offers on rooms & apartments for rent. However mostly written in German. You can create your own ad and ask for publication in the upcoming newsletter.

→ Subscription via e-mail: budenschleuder@kraeftner.de

Important information and explanations

While searching for a place at halls of residence for school students, trainees, apprentices and volunteers, you may see words like 'Tagessatz' or acronyms like 'BAB' or 'Bafög'. Here we give you a short explanation of these terms:

Daily rate (in German 'Tagessatz')

'Tagessatz' means a daily rate. A daily rate includes lodging, (full) board, pedagogical support and leisure time activities.

Bafög

The acronym 'Bafög' stands for 'German Federal Law on Training and Education Promotion'. Bafög is a Student Grant (for school as well as university students).

BAB

The acronym 'BAB' stands for 'Berufsausbildungshilfe', which is the German Training Support Grant for trainees and apprentices.

Bafög respectively BAB are both financial support for those, who are not able to afford their study, training etc. on their own or with help of their parents. The amount of the support depends among other things on the housing costs. Several requirements have to be fulfilled in order to apply for Bafög / BAB. These requirements also concern matters of: permanent residence in Germany, the citizenship etc.
